WPMS No. 308 of 2003

Hon'ble B. S. Verma, J.

Mr. Sushil Vashisth, Advocate, present for the petitioner.

Mr. S.K. Jain, Sr. Advocate, assisted by Mr. B.S. Thind, Advocate, present for the respondents.

Heard.

Delay condonation application no. 4688 of 2012 has been filed to condone the delay in filing the setting aside abatement application.

Reasons are sufficiently shown in the affidavit. Delay condonation application is allowed. Delay is condoned.

Setting aside abatement application no. 4689 of 2012 is also allowed in view of the averments made in the affidavit of the deponent.

Also heard on substitution application no. 4690 of 2012.

The applicants are sons of Late M.S. Rana. The substitution application is allowed directing the petitioner to file the amended memo of the parties during the course of the day.

Also heard on merits.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he does not want to press the relief no. 'A' since the relief has become infructuous on account of the death of Late M.S. Rana, and sought liberty to make representation before the respondent to make payment of dues for which the petitioner was entitled.

Learned Sr. Advocate has no objection in making such representation.

If such representation is made, same shall be decided in accordance with law,, within a period of three months from the production of the certified copy of this order.

In view of the above facts, the writ petition is disposed of finally with the above direction.
